

College of the Desert's online program utilizes the Canvas learning management system software. Online classes are offered over the Internet in a variety of discipline areas, as indicated under the specific course listings in the Schedule of Classes provided each semester. Online courses are as transferable as regularly scheduled classes, have the same prerequisites as traditional face-to-face courses, and uphold identical standards of academic quality.

Online courses generally follow the traditional sixteen week semester, but the coursework is completed asynchronously via email, electronic bulletin boards, and chatrooms. Individual classes may have additional prerequisites as specified in their online syllabi.

80 ONLINE

Fully Online Course (FULLONLN)

A Fully Online Course is delivered exclusively over the Internet using Canvas. There are no class meetings on campus and all assignments and examinations are submitted online in an asynchronous manner. You must have ready access to a computer with Internet. Students enrolled in an online course should possess apt computer skills.

Proctored Online Course (PROCONLN)

All assignments and examinations in a Proctored Online Course will be submitted online in an asynchronous manner, but you will be required to take tests at a proctoring facility. Your instructor will provide proctoring accommodations at COD. Off-site proctoring services could be available at the discretion of the instructor. Contact the individual instructor to learn more about their off-site proctoring policy. You must have ready access to a computer with Internet. Students enrolled in an online course should possess apt computer skills.

Hybrid Course (HYBRID)

Hybrid Courses meet both on campus and online. A portion of the traditional face-to-face on campus meetings are replaced with online activities. The schedule of classes will indicate the times and dates of the meetings you are required to attend. Access to a computer with Internet access is required.

Web Enhanced Course

Web Enhanced Courses are traditional face-to-face classes that make routine use of the Canvas system. These courses hold all their meetings on campus. The instructor will post required course materials and/or activities online and may require assignments be turned in online. Access to a computer with Internet access is required.

College of the Desert's online program utilizes the Canvas learning management system software. Online classes are offered over the Internet in a variety of discipline areas, as indicated under the specific course listings in the Schedule of Classes provided each semester. Online courses are as transferable as regularly scheduled classes, have the same prerequisites as traditional face-to-face courses, and uphold identical standards of academic quality.

Online courses generally follow the traditional sixteen week semester, but the coursework is completed asynchronously via email, electronic bulletin boards, and chatrooms. Individual classes may have additional prerequisites as specified in their online syllabi.
