Course Objectives

	Objectives
Objective 1	Define and discuss religion and religious systems within the parameters of anthropological study. Explain and differentiate between the different ways the term religion is defined and between the different theoretical approaches to the study of religion.
Objective 2	Explain and analyze the paradigm shifts that have occurred in anthropological theory regarding the study of traditional religious systems and how these have been affected by the other social sciences.
Objective 3	Describe the differences between myths, legends, and tales, and relate cultural myths to the world view of traditional peoples.
Objective 4	Discuss the importance of symbolism, ritual, rites of passage, and taboo within traditional religious systems.
Objective 5	Differentiate between roles of traditional religious specialists, and propose how each type of specialist operates within different subsistence-based cultures.
Objective 6	Distinguish between Western and traditional societal views of health and illness and the role that religion plays in these belief systems.
Objective 7	Explain the functions served by various religious phenomena, both for the individual and society. Explain how religious phenomena, such as the nature of supernatural beings and witchcraft beliefs, reflect the culture in which they are found.
Objective 8	Explain and compare and contrast the basic concepts of the course including mythology, symbolism, rituals, specialists, altered states, magic, divination, supernatural beings, and witchcraft.
Objective 9	Differentiate between belief systems involving magic, science, and religion.
Objective 10	Explain how and why new religious movements happen and evaluate the efficacy of revitalization movements and their impact on traditional and post-industrial societies.

Student Learning Outcomes

Effective Student/Faculty Contact

Which of the following methods of regular, timely, and effective student/faculty contact will be used in this course?

Within Course Management System:

Chat room/instant messaging
Discussion forums with substantive instructor participation
Online quizzes and examinations
Private messages
Regular virtual office hours
Timely feedback and return of student work as specified in the syllabus
Video or audio feedback
Weekly announcements

External to Course Management System:

Direct e-mail
Posted audio/video (including YouTube, 3cm mediasolutions, etc.)
Synchronous audio/video

For hybrid courses:

Field trips
Library workshops

Briefly discuss how the selected strategies above will be used to maintain Regular Effective Contact in the course.

Announcements, direct messaging, email, etc. are all ways to make sure the instructor is in regular effective contact with their students.

If interacting with students outside the LMS, explain how additional interactions with students outside the LMS will enhance student learning.

Field trips, workshops as part of a hybrid course will help students achieve the SLO's by exposing them to content and material they are reading about in class.

Other Information

Provide any other relevant information that will help the Curriculum Committee assess the viability of offering this course in an online or hybrid modality.

This course is easy to offer as either a hybrid or fully online course, as the material and supplements can be understood by students so long as regular effective contact is established by the instructor.
